Notification of the Department of Special Investigation on the Charging of Fees for Requesting Copies or Certified True Copies of Official Information

Section 9 Paragraph Three of the Official Information Act, B.E. 2540 (1997) stipulates that a State Agency may, with the approval of the Official Information Board, lay down the rules on the collection of fees for requesting copies or certified true copies of official information, having regard to the making of concessions given to persons on low incomes, unless otherwise provided by specific law.

With a view to ensuring that the charging of fees for requesting copies or certified true copies of official information of the Department of Special Investigation is appropriate, accurate and compliant with the Notification of the Official Information Board, dated 7 May B.E. 2542 (1999), on the Charging of Fees for Requesting Copies or Certified True Copies of Official Information, as well as Clause 21 of the Regulation of the Department of Special Investigation on Official Information, B.E. 2562 (2019), the Department of Special Investigation hereby imposes the following fees:

1. Fees for making copies with photocopiers shall be charged based on the following rates:

(1) A4 paper	1	baht/page
(2) F14 paper	1.50	baht/page
(3) B4 paper	2	baht/page
(4) A3 paper	3	baht/page
(5) A2 blueprint paper	8	baht/page
(6) A1 blueprint paper	15	baht/page
(7) A0 blueprint paper	30	baht/page

2. Fees for certifying copies of documents shall be charged at 5 baht/page.

3. In the case where the persons on low incomes request copies or certified true copies, an authorized official may waive or reduce the fees as deemed appropriate and report such waiver or reduction of fees to the Director General.

4. The revenue from fees collected under this Notification shall be forwarded to the Special Case Expense Group as public revenue.

Announced on this 13th Day of June B.E. 2566 (2023)

Police Major Suriya Singhakamol
