

(Translation)

Declaration of Intent of the Department of Special Investigation (DSI) on Promotion and Protection of Human Rights

The Department of Special Investigation intends to promote and protect human rights, raise awareness, and recognize the significance of applying principles of human rights as the foundations of its performance and internal management in accordance with the missions of the Department of Special Investigation on prevention, suppression, investigation, and inquiry of special cases subject to the provisions of the Constitution of the Kingdom of Thailand, B.E. 2560 (2017) and the 5th National Human Rights Plan (2023-2027) detailed as follows:

1. respecting and honoring each other, accepting and recognizing human values, and equally treating colleagues and users of public service with respect in human dignity, without discrimination based on ethnicity, birthplace, gender, skin color, language, social status or other status of all stakeholders
2. performing tasks conforming to the principles of human rights, justice, impartiality, carefulness, and abstinence from human rights violations
3. supporting and promoting human rights to provide users of public service, injured persons, and victims of justice system with protection, legal assistance, reconciliation, dispute resolution, witness protection, victim compensation, and access to the swift, equal, fair, and effective justice procedures
4. forming cooperation with all sectors for justice enhancement for the general public

As the head of the agency, I hereby declare the intent to direct the internal and external performance of the organization in accordance with the principles of human rights in every aspect in order to accomplish the goal of turning Thai society in to the “society that fosters rights, liberty, and equality with respect of human dignity”.

Police Major Yutthana Praedam

Deputy Director-General of Department of Special Investigation
Acting Director-General of Department of Special Investigation