Declaration of Organizational Commitment to Shared Values and Organizational Culture of the Department of Special Investigation for Fiscal Year B.E. 2568 (2025)

The Department of Special Investigation, established in 2002, serves as the key law enforcement agency tasked with combating special crimes. The organization upholds the principles of a merit-based system in its administration, guided by the shared values and organizational culture of “Dignity, Specialty, and Integrity,” which are widely practiced and respected within the Department of Special Investigation.

The Department of Special Investigation has developed a 5-year plan (2023–2027) of the Shared Values and Organizational Culture Improvement Plan, along with the Shared Values and Organizational Culture Action Plan for fiscal year B.E. 2568 (2025). As part of the 2025 Action Plan, the Department of Special Investigation is required to declare the “Organizational Commitment to Shared Values and Organizational Culture of the Department of Special Investigation.” This aims to strengthen the Department of Special Investigation’s organizational culture in concretely implementing the shared values of “Dignity, Specialty, and Integrity.” These values are hereby publicized for all personnel to acknowledge and practice as follows:

Organizational Commitment to Shared Values and Organizational Culture of the Department of Special Investigation

D : Dignity	S : Specialty	I : Integrity
To perform duties and administer justice equally to all people, without fear of influence	To develop oneself and personnel to achieve expertise in the profession of special case investigation in accordance with international standards	To perform duties with integrity, transparency, and fairness, while adhering to the principles of good governance and refraining from any form of policy corruption

Given on the 14th Day of January B.E. 2568 (2025)

Police Major Yutthana Praedam
Director General
